

Yehey! We can read!

Teacher Maribel does wonders indeed! Just two months into our head start program, and the five-year-olds started reading in both English and Tagalog.

The library opened last August, and the children excitedly chose the first books that they would bring home.

The UCH Library was made possible by donations of a thousand books gathered by Amy Lim in the US, plus hundreds more given by friends here in Antipolo. The bookshelves were donated by George Coles of Jarrah Furniture.

2018 'Childs Hope' calendar!

We gave them crayons and paper and asked them to draw "anything". The results were amazing! The children's artwork will be featured in the SET Graphics 2018 calendar which will be available this December.

They learn the value of keeping the environment green with class planting projects which their parents help supervise. "Magtanim ay di biro" but it certainly is a lot of fun!

Media Noche sharing

Twenty-two friends generously pitched in so we can share a good Christmas Eve feast with our 58 Child's Hope families. Thank you for your love!

The gift packages will be distributed at our Christmas Program on December 23rd.

Benefit art sale!

Three artists, Fay Ejercito, Cherry Sison Bito and Loren Dyas, sold their paintings at an art exhibit in Taguig and donated the proceeds to Child's Hope. They came up to Antipolo, together with Joy Sabado and Ruth Keijdenner, to meet the children who welcomed them with a special presentation. The children also made handmade greeting cards for Fay, Cherry and Loren who were all celebrating their birthdays.

Thank you dear artists with loving hearts!

Special visitors

Our special visitors this period include Patty and Devin Lim from California, Cha Babilonia and Savannah Din from Washington, Mari Jones also from California, and Lida Panlilio from Zambales.

Savvy brought backpacks for the children. Mari brought teacher's aids.
